J. E. T. Rogers,
Professor of Political Economy at Oxford.
June 28, 1867.

I need hardly say how glad I am that honour is done to a Southerner who has been foremost in furthering the development of public opinion upon a question which was of such vital importance to the United States, and by implication to the cause of liberty throughout the world.

Yours faithfully

James E. Thorold Rogers

To F. W. Cheesman.

For Professor Rhys Roberts of Professor Pitcairn's Germany, Oxford

Oxford
June 28.

My dear Sir

I much regret that my engagements prevent me from being present at the breakfast & be seen to her Majesty. I have delayed answering him both with this reason, because I was not sure that I should be precluded from being in London. V35 p54

J. E. T. Rogers,